

Light Protective Wear

Dedicated to the needs of the food industry and made of lightweight material with increased aeration for the user.

20%
reduction in CO₂-eq
on average*

FEATURES

- Applicational fit
- Easy handling and disposal after use.
- Head to toe coverage - supporting various tasks in wet, hot, or cold environments.
- Thinner and lighter non-woven material*
- Comes in multiple sizes, thicknesses, and colors for optimum fit and application.
- Continuous improvement of product range to minimize environmental impact.

All protective wear items selected for the food industry are suitable for food contact, except for shoe covers.

Disclaimer:
*With the features of this thinner version, ABENA has reduced the carbon emissions of our Food Industry items compared to previous item versions, on products that have been tested.
(Item numbers: 1999915202, 1999915203, 1999915204, 1999915205, 1999915206, 10100002108, 10100002109, 1999916668, 1999916669, 1999918624, 1999916883, 1999916887)

Official Disclaimer
The modeling and calculation methods are based on ISO 14040/44. The impact categories and result reporting is based on EF 3.0 (PEF - Product Environmental Footprint).
The calculations are done per 1000 pieces and with incineration in the end of life

Products You Can Trust

Supporting the high quality requirements of meat and fish processing sites, protecting both product and the employee.

PRODUCT LIST

For complete product list, please contact your local sales representative.

www.abena.com